DR. SCOTT GOSTCHOCK

Executive Director, Grace in Action

Dr. Scott Gostchock (Dr. G - his inner city tag), in addition to serving as a training consultant for Grace In Action (GIA), serves as president of a consulting division in a new company called Partner2Learn. He has served cross-cultural, inner city, urban education as a teacher and administrator for over 20-years. He also is teaching online and on campus for a number of different colleges and universities in training youth, entrepreneurial ministry leaders, teachers, and other various leaders for urban education, ministry leadership, executive leadership, and other various areas of service for Jesus. His specialties are executive leadership training and coaching, strategic planning, CliftonStrengths, team building, classroom management, communications, knowing and loving yourself, and various other areas of training and development.

STRENGTHSFINDER: KNOW AND USE YOUR GOD-GIVEN STRENGTHS - YOU ARE AMAZING - FEARFULLY AND WONDERFULLY MADE (PSALM 139):

What makes you unique? What gives you joy? If you understood yourself better, do you think it could make a difference in your college studies? How about your job, or better yet the relationships that matter most? Could understanding how God made you unique answer some doubts and prayers you have about your future?

This “learn-the-basics” overview of StrengthsFinder will help you become more aware of your God-given strengths. The emphasis will be on how each person and the specific partner-up opportunities can find joy serving the Lord in your personal life, your ministry to serve others, and the many other teams and roles in your lives. We will identify Strength Partner-Up Opportunities and be encouraged in light of how God has created us to be a unique part of the body of Christ – as we all grow in love for ourselves based upon God’s love for us to serve others.

Don’t know your strengths? Visit www.gallupstrengthscenter.com to unlock your top 5 strengths ($20) or full 34 ($50)
