

YES. I'M SAVED. NOW WHAT? (DISCUSSION QUESTIONS)

Working the eternal implications of a timeless gospel into a daily life.

1. During the presentation on Gospel Implications, James mentioned major areas of life that the gospel directly impacts – Identity, Trauma, Relationships, Society, Health, Finances, Intimacy, and Processing Loss. Which of the areas resonated with you the most and why?
2. What do you think is the MOST important concern facing people your age right now? What does it look like to work out the gospel (i.e. good news & grace of Jesus) into that particularly area of life?
3. Be honest. Can you identify an aspect of your life that perhaps unfortunately resembles the value system of the world? (e.g. pursuing wealth, beauty, or success in the same way as the rest of the world) What would it look like to work the gospel deeper into that area?
4. The word gospel literally means “good news.” That is very different from “good advice.” Do you think the fact that it is news, not advice, makes the gospel more or less attractive to the world? Why?
5. God designed you and Jesus redeemed you for a purpose. What is that purpose? How do you think you will feel/should feel if the primary pursuits and goals of your life violate that purpose? How do you think you will feel if you actually pursue your God-given purpose?
